

Words of Nostalgia: Nostalgic Rhetoric in Philippines' Social Media

Sanghoon Kim-Leffingwell, Center for Advanced Governmental Studies, Johns Hopkins University Emily Sallenback, Department of Political Science, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

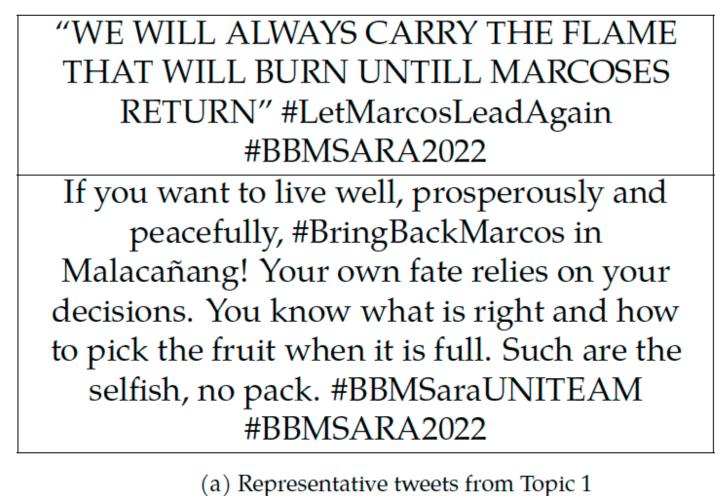

Why do people feel nostalgic for a former dictatorship?

- And through what means is authoritarian nostalgia delivered, circulated, and accepted to and by the mass?
- Analyze Twitter posts around the Philippines presidential election in May 2022
- Collected around 60,000 tweets from February to May 2022

How is nostalgic rhetoric circulated on social media?

- We employ topic modeling (LDA) to classify tweets from BBM supporters.
- We further improve our classification by combining supervised and unsupervised topic modeling.

Who are likely to post nostalgia tweets?

- Will nostalgists tend to express negative evaluation on social media (Tucker 2006; Prusik and Lewicka 2016)?
- We further collected timelines of BBM supporter accounts based on topic modeling results
